GCC Online Retail

Browse, Like, Compare, Buy

Research Highlights

Examining the current status of Online Retail sector in the GCC, including the various trends, and growth drivers. The report also analyzes payment systems that are currently in use, challenges faced by online retail merchants and consumers, and highlights the key market players in the region.

What is the report about?

Compared to developed and emerging markets, online retail in the GCC is still at a very nascent stage. The size of the e-commerce business in the GCC is less than USD 7bn, while countries in Asia-Pacific, North America and Western Europe presently account for 90 per cent of the global e-commerce sales. Currently, e-commerce is being developed as an extension of physical retail stores in the GCC, with few alternatives for pure retail channel websites. But with rapidly improving ICT infrastructure, increasing number of internet users, and high penetration of smartphones and tablets, the popularity of e-commerce is increasing among consumers and retailers. The report provides a detailed analysis of the GCC Online Retail industry.

Who will benefit and why?

The report will benefit anyone tracking the GCC Online Retail industry, and its many players; especially domestic and international retailers, mall-operators, convenience store owners, family offices, trading bodies, regulatory authorities, investors and economists.
