Saudi mortgage finance firm eyes US debut issuance – The Saudi Real Estate Refinance Company (SRC), the mortgage finance giant owned by the Kingdom's sovereign wealth fund, the Public Investment Fund (PIF), is considering an international bond issuance this year, possibly in the US, its CEO told Arab News. The SRC issued an SAR 4 billion ($1.07 billion) domestic sukuk — the Islamic equivalent of a bond — last month, designed to provide liquidity to the Kingdom's housing market. CEO Fabrice Susini said that the SRC's current balance sheet had more than tripled between the end of 2019 and the end of 2020, but he did not rule out going back to the market for another capital injection. ECB's Panetta: we must maintain stimulus until inflation hits 2% – The European Central Bank should not dial back its aggressive stimulus measures until the euro zone economy achieves its growth potential and inflation is back at 2%, ECB board member Fabio Panetta said on Monday. The ECB, which kept its policy unchanged last week, is set to decide in June the future of its emergency bond purchases, the key plank of its response to the coronavirus pandemic, which crippled the euro zone economy. Panetta said the ECB could and should keep credit cheap for a long time, even if borrowing costs around the world rise as a result of a booming U.S. economy. (Source: Reuters)
